HEAVY TONNAGE IN COAL TRADE

Inspectors Byrne and McCanch Give Estimates of District Production

INCREASE IN TWENTY-FIRST

Covering all the river districts in Washington county and extending far back into the county the first and twenty-first bituminous districts produced a large tonnage of coal during 1915. The twenty-first district surpassed the tonnage of 1914 by about one million tons, but in the first owing to adverse circumstances prevailing a part of the year there was a falling off of close to one and one-half million net tons in the production. Estimates are made by Inspector Charles P. Byrne of the twenty-first and by Inspector Alexander McCanch of the first. A detailed report is not yet available in either of the districts.

Twenty-First District Report

In the twenty-first district Inspector Byrne's estimate is that 6,560,340 net tons were mined In 1914 the record was 5,552,506 tons. This year as last the Vesta Coal company remained the largest producer.

According to the report of Inspector Byrne the coke tonnage for 1915 was approximately 197,500 net tons. In the coal and coke production there were 5,860 men employed. Inspector Byrne has a triangle shaped district extending from Charleroi to Crucible along the Monongahela river reaching back in straight lines from these two points to Waynesburg. However there are no mines demanding his attention near the Greene county seat. Twenty three mines all told have to be looked after by him, including the largest mine in the world, Vesta No. 4. His headquarters are in Charleroi.

During the year in the twenty-first district the Vesta Coal company started work on a new opening at Denbeau to be known as Vesta No. 6 mine. When the mine is placed in full operation it will have a production of about 3,000 tons daily and employ from 500 to 600 men. The Pitt Gas Coal company opened up a small mine at Besco along the river above West Brownsville. In the district the coming summer the Warner-Leonard company is planning to open up a large mine near Charleroi employing about 500 men. The district is one of the largest and at the time one of the most compact in the twenty-first district.

Report From First District.

Mine Inspector McCanch's estimate of coal production in the first district is 3,883,574 net tons. The coke produced totaled about 478,223 net tons, this being considerably larger than that produced in the adjoining twenty-first district. A total of about 6,000 men were employed in the work. The price of coke averaged about $1.80. for the year.

The coal production is below that of the good year of 1913 by about one and one-half million tons. Inspector McCanch explains that the fore part of 1915 there was a restricted market.

TRI-CITY INSTITUTE TO BE HELD IN CHARLEROI

Dr. Edward Howard Griggs Already Secured as One of Instructors—Want Dean Lewis to Come

Dr. Edward Howard Griggs, who made such an impression at Donora last year, has already been secured. An effort is being made to get Dr. William Draper Lewis of Philadelphia, principal of the William Penn High schools for girls; Dr. Snedden, commissioner of Education for the state of Massachusetts and Dr. Crawford, president of Allegheny college.

PETTY THIEVING OVER THE TOWN

One Citizen Complains That Too Much Protection is Being Given Thieves

SMALL PANS EVEN ARE STOLEN

Complaints have been made lately of numerous instances of petty thieving from various sections of Charleroi, until several citizens are urging decided action be taken. One of the latest thefts was that of tire chains from the garage of W. H. Calvert on Fallowfield avenue.

"It is time that something was being done," said one man in speaking of the burglaries. "Even when arrests are made accused persons somehow seem to get protection. If they don't get protection at one place, they get it at another. What are we doing? Are we bringing up and educating a gang of thieves, encouraging them by telling them they are not guilty? We have the wrong conception of justice if we are."

No estimat has been made of the value of articles stolen. Such things as milk bottles and tin pans from back porches are frequently missed, proving the activities of the pettiest of petty thieves.

Attempts to amend the report of the scale committee were defeated and the report was adopted as presented.

The demands will be brought before the bituminous operators at Mobile, February 8 and before the anthricite operations at New York February 21.

The convention, also went on record as approving the attitude of John P. White, president of the organization, who in his biennial report declared that he was "fully convinced that the men of labor are unalterably opposed to the whole scheme of preparedness, which means war."

ESCAPED CONVICT IS APPREHENDED

Charles Douglas Captured Near Irwin by Irwin Burgess and Police Chief

NO RESISTANCE IS OFFERED

Charles Douglas, the escaped convicted murderer of Westmoreland county was captured by Burgess Steiner and Chief of Police Frum of Irwin one mile south of that borough this morning at 9 o'clock. Weakened from lack of food the man did not offer resistance, merely gasping, "I guess you've got me," and supplementing this by bitterly begging for bread.

The Irwin officers received a tip from a farmer this morning and left for the scene where Douglas was said to have been seen. They saw him running down a hillside and into an old smelter plant. Burgess Steiner and Chief Frum drew their revolvers and entered the building. They had no trouble and the only weapon found upon the negro was a razor.

For a day after his escape Douglas lingered in the Greensburg environs, then made toward Etna. He spent the rest of the time in the coke regions near Etna, Herminie and Irwin. He said the only food he had had was two slices of bread he had secured from coke workers. He was jailed temporarily at Irwin, then taken to Greensburg, protesting stoutly that he did not kill Joseph Smith the Monessen man for whose murder he was sentenced to be executed.

BAPTIST WILL HOLD MEETINGS

Rev. Walter M. Corll of Mt. Lebanon Coming to Assist Local Pastor

BUILDING PROJECTS AIDED

Next Monday evening two weeks of special evangelistic meetings will begin at the First Baptist church, with Rev. Walter M. Corll, pastor of the Mt. Lebanon Baptist church as the preacher nightly. The services have been arranged by Rev. W. G. Carl, pastor and his congregation under a plan adopted by the Pittsburg Baptist association for services at each church in the association.

Rev. Corll is considered an eminently successful pastor and evangelist. Tomorrow he will welcome into his church 24 new members, with others to be baptized, these being converts at the regular services without special meetings.

Encouragement was offered the local Baptist church during the present week by the action of the Pittsburg Baptist Association to extend financial aid, thus insuring the success of a contemplated building enterprise. The plan will be explained in detail by the pastor at the Sunday morning services. It is proposed by the church to start building operations now just as soon as possible on the lots already owned on Washington avenue near Fourth street.

CHARLEROI MAN NAMED PRESIDENT

W. S. James to Head Sunday School Organization Of Washington County

MEETING AT CANONSBURG

Unanimous choice of William S. James of Charleroi as the president of the Washington County Sabbath School Association was made by the officers of the organization at a conference at Canonsburg Friday and under his direction work started to place the county association in the forefront of Sunday school work in the state as well as the nation. This came in recognition of 50 years of activity in Sunday School work on the part of the Charleroi man and brought forth commendation from all the 19 districts of the county.

The election of Mr. James was one of the chief features of the conference which was conspicuous because of the visitation of state officers headed by W. G. Landes, general secretary. Another of the features was that of the presentation of a plan to have the count association incorporated under state laws

Rev. H. N. Cameron of Washington vice president of the county, presided at the meeting which elected Mr. James president. Mr. James succeeds R. C. Briceland of Midway. In church and Sunday school work the new president has held almost every position excepting that of pastor. He will have supervision over the Sunday schools [illegible] of the county in which there are 50,000 members. In the Adult Bible class department alone there are 500 organized classes, with over 10,000 members.

The next executive committee of the county organization will be held at Washington February 19 when plans for the coming year will be outlined.

MINERS ON STRIKE AT THE EQUITABLE MINE

Alleging overcrowding 400 miners of the Equitable mine of the Pittsburg Coal Company are on strike. They maintain the company is working two men to a room instead of two to two rooms, thus reducing earnings. A conference is being held in Pittsburg today. Charles McDaniels is the mine superintendent.

LETTER-WRITING WEEK

Oregon is having a "Letter-writing Week." Everybody in Oregon who knows anybody else in any less favored state is to write at least one letter telling of the joys and wonders of Oregon. Crater lake, prunes and loganberry juice will all come in for their share of the praise, asserts the Punxsutawney Spirit.

The Oregon Statesman prints a sample letter, 300 copies of which one business firm is sending out to all its customers in the exterior darkness beyond the borders, which reads more like an old-fashioned Fourth of July oration than a serious epistle. It's more flamboyant than a railway prospectus, more fulsome than a patent medicine ad.

But it is useful and sensible just the same. The town or state which deliberately sets out to brag about itself must first of all have something definite to brag about. And in getting its material it must learn about itself. If there are weak spots in its transportation, its government, its industrial or agricultural systems, these are going to come out. The braggers may not mention them in their letters, but they are going to get to work to remedy them, if only to avoid being the laughing-stock of other towns and states.

It means co-operation too, and public spirit. The people who write these letters one year for fun, are going to get together next year to make things better in sober earnest.

NOT A MODERN ATHENS

It is a truth long admitted by the benighted of that small region of the United States outside the town of Boston, that there is but one Athens in the United States, but something more was expected of the teachings of the schools of Greater New York than the result of an examination of pupils in simple arithmetic, which has been made a matter of formal record, says the Pittsburg Dispatch.

An arithmetical problem submitted to New York boys and girls of the average age of 13 years was to add 1.58, .65, .49, 2.98, 10.77, 1.38 and 3.10. Out of a total of 1,023 pupils only 76 per cent made the correct computation. This should in no wise be discouraging to Manhattan and the other New York boroughs. Let the savants of the schools of New York, at whom the "finger of scorn" is being pointed by the savants of Boston propound another "sum" to be solved by pupils of the groves of Academe in this Modern Athens and await the result with gleeful expectance.

In that older Athens there lived an arithemitcian and geometrician, yclept Archimedes, the greatest of his genus that has ever lived, though he was Sicilian born. He proclaimed that if he had a lever long enough and a sound basis for a fulcrum, he could raise the earth and mathematicians ever since have been disputing about the length of the lever and the distance from the earth at which the fulcrum would have to be placed. Archimedes made a square of the circle, and though his exploits dated about 300 years before the Christian era the dispute as to the squaring of the circle is still a fascinating problem. Archimedes computed the number of grains of sand that would be required to make the earth and that is another computation yet mooted.

Why then deride the failing New York pupils? How many of the teachers in the public schools of anywhere would quickly and correctly solve the simple addition or something similar, quoted above?

Prospects of a coal famine among private consumers at Donora and the recent tale of a similar sort of famine at Connellsville occasions wonder as to just how long the present coal mines of the rich Western Pennsylvania fields will hold out. If the present unusually heavy demand continues for any long period new mines will have to be opened, for the operations will not be able to supply enough. Mills are using more coal now than they ever did and the coal used by the railroads in haulage is considerable.

Additional mines that will become necessary will aid immediate developments and make prosperity seem all the brighter, but they also will help to rapidly deplete the fields upon which a part of the prosperity depends. It is difficult for Western Pennsylvania to imagine having to purchase all its coal from elsewhere, but the experiences Donora and Connellsville have had in private consumption indicate that it may not be so long until it comes to that

PICKED UP IN PASSING

"Now," said the teacher to his class during a lesson in English, "can any one give me a word ending with 'ous,' meaning full of as 'dangerous' full of danger and 'hazardous' full of hazard?"

There was silence in the class for awhile Then a boy sitting in the front row put up his hand.

"Well," said the teacher, "what is your word?"

"Please, sir," came the reply, "'pious,' full of pie."

When the ballplayers are down South in the spring the old players do not take any chances with their pitching arms, letting the youngsters prove their energies instead. One day at Little Rock, where the Detroit team was playing an exhibition, old Red Donahue, who in his day was the sharpest-tongued man in baseball, was tossing them over and letting the Little Rock batters hit at will to the great delight of the spectators.

"Oh, Red, you're easy, easy, easy," shrieked one very wild fan who was getting on Red's nerves.

"I'm not half as easy as you are," retorted Red. You paid 50 cents to see me do it."—The American Boy.

On board of one of his majesty's ships two seamen were hotly engaged in an argument as to the class of animal the hog belonged one of them asserting it was a sheep and the other equally certain it was a pig.

Not being able to agree one of them turned to an old salt, who was standing close by, saying:

"Here Bill you knocked about a bit What is a hog? Is it a pig or a sheep?"

Whereupon Bill, after due consideration, replied:

"Well, to tell the truth, chummy, I don't know much about poultry."

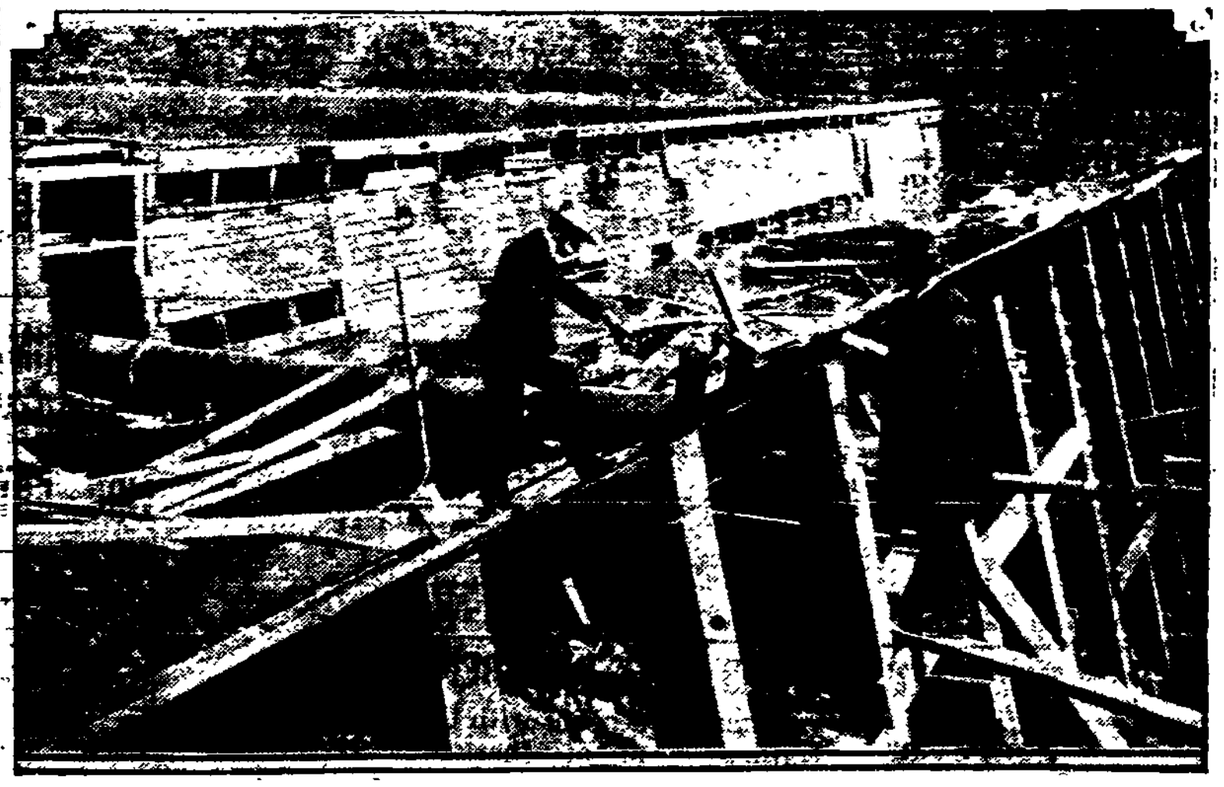
PROTECTING PUBLIC WATER SUPPLIES



All of the public water supplies in this State come directly under the supervision of the State Department of Health. Under the Act of 1905 water companies were required to file plans of existing systems, and whenever any additions are made or new sources of supply are required, the plans must first receive the approval of the Commissioner of Health, Samuel G. Dixon.

A bad source of water supply may readily become a menace to the entire community and it is necessary that a careful inspection be made of all new sheds and sources of supply before the Department will permit their use. The Inspectors of the Department make careful field investigations and send in their reports to the State Department of Health at Harrisburg After these investigations and a consideration of the plans, if the supply is considered safe, permits are issued by Doctor Dixon allowing the companies to proceed with the construction. This system is a protection to the public.

MAKE KITCHEN BRIGHT

EASILY DONE BY EXERCISE OF A LITTLE THOUGHT.

Many Reasons Why Room Should Be the Cleanest, Sunniest and Most Cheerful in the House—Color Scheme Means Much.

One wonders at the housekeepers who choose for their kitchen walls and woodwork a dingy gray or brown or some other dark, dull color that will not show the dirt. Are they better housekeepers because the dirt, which is surely there, does not show? Would these same women wear black dresses and aprons when doing the cooking and feel that they were clean because they did not look soiled?

The kitchen should be the cleanest, sunniest, and most cheerful room in the house. It is here the housekeeper spends most of her time, and it is here the food is prepared and often served.

It is not always possible to have the kitchen located so as to get the best light, but a dark room may be much improved by using the proper color. In a Minnesota town the school kitchen had windows on the east side only. Half of them were on a court and the others against a hill; but by the use of a deep cream tint on the ceiling, a buff for the walls and woodwork of southern pine finished in the natural color and varnished, the effect of sunlight was given even on the dull, short days of the northern winter.

If there is much sunshine in the kitchen white or blue may be used; but on the north side of the house use buff or warm, yellowish tan. The increased cheerfulness and better spirits of the housekeeper will mean much to the entire family, and her work will not be increased by the new color scheme because a sunny, pleasant workshop lightens every task.—Mary L. FIGHTERS ROUNDING INTO TRIM FOR BIG SHOW AT CHARLEROI

In Charleroi Jim Perry, the Pittsburg welterweight is rounding into trim and at Monessen Bull Miller is working out for the main event to be staged by this pair at the Charleroi skating rink at Charleroi Monday night, January 31. The show will be one of the several that is being given there during the winter under the auspices of the Charleroi Boxing Club.

Both Perry and Miller will enter the ring in the pink of form. That their mill will be hard fought and fast is conceded and both are a bit wary about making any previous claims.

The preliminaries are claiming much attention. In the semi final mill Eddie Gray of Steubenville and Battling Sherbine of Pittsburg will be pitted against each other and there will fur fly. Other preliminaries will be fought by Jonnny Todd of Donora and Joe Larue of Charleroi and Bart McGinnis of Roscoe and Mike Kotsic of Monessen all men of science and ability.

Degree Conferred.

The Golden Rule degree was conferred on a class of six by Caligreen Encampment No. 254 Friday evening.

Trains Are Delayed.

Evening passenger train service was delayed Friday evening on the Monongahela division by a slight freight wreck on the Redstone branch.

Big Savings in the face of advancing markets. Monday last day of big sale. Don't put off. Berryman's. 191-t2

HEAVY TONNAGE

In the latter part of the year the market showed a tendency at expansion, but during the latter part there was a restriction by railroad embargo.

As a further explanation of the reduction in tonnage is mentioned the suspension during all or nearly all of the year of the large Marianna mines, the Nottingham, Cincinnati, Black Diamond and Catsburg mines, all with a large tonnage when working to capacity. These mines alone would produce the one and one-half million tons necessary to bring the total up to the average.

No unusual labor trouble occurred during the year in the first district, and the only discouraging features were the trade conditions. Coal used for steam and domestic purposes aggregated about 75,236 tons.

Inspector McCanch's district takes in 22 mines which are loacted along the river from and including the Charleroi mine to a point near the Allegheny-Washington county line, and extends back into the county to take in the Marianna mines. In his district big developments are anticipated this year. The Marianna mines have just resumed operations under new ownership, and it is anticipated that other mines including the Black Diamond and Catsburg operations will resume this spring. The recent coalition of the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke company with the Pittsburg Coal company will mean as much to the first and twenty-first districts as it does anywhere, and it may mean a resumption at mines which have been idle.

Looking Forward to April

The two districts are looking forward to April when a suspension of operations is possible for a time until there is an adjustment of scale matters. Yet there may be no suspension whatever, since no unusual demands are likely to be presented by the mine workers. The fact remains, however, that some concerns have been storing up coal to guard against contingencies.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS DO NOT FIX TAX LEVY

The county commissioners did not get together Friday on the tax levy, which has been before them. It was announced that the mileage would be fixed at a meeting to be held next Monday. The controller's budget was submitted to the board Thursday and discussed by the controller and the board. After the noon hour the commissioners discussed the proposed millage.

THE LAST TWO DAYS of JANUARY CLEARANCE SALE

January Clearance and Inventory Sale Ends Monday, January 31st. We again urge you to come in and get your share of the bargains. From the best reports of the most reliable wholesale and jobbing houses all manner of domestic and other merchandise that are treated with acids or dyes will be hard to procure, and of course the price will go higher. There are probably hundreds of items in our stock today that could not be replaced at the price. Mill men are refusing orders on all dark colored percales, domets, etc. The jobbing price of the well known, old reliable Alabama Cheviots is now 9½c and Lancaster Ginghams now wholesale cost 7½c per yard. What can a retailer do? In all sincerity we advise all our patrons to look well to your needs and provide as early as possible for your wants for the next six months. In Ladies' and Misses' ready-to-wear garments there is no need to hurry, there will always be plenty. We would advise you to go slow however and examine all goods for quality. Good, dependable merchandise will be no less this spring. Be assured also that this firm is over 25 years old, almost 20 years in this town, and we have the buying power of three big stores and the record of paying every bill ever bought in full. That splendid record is what gives our buying organization the lowest prices ever quoted on reliable merchandise, and you so often hear it said if you want anything good get it at BERRYMAN'S, and that is the reputation the big store wants to keep.

We have tried our best to anticipate the price raise and have saved you lots of money we are sure, but if jobbers cannot secure, then it becomes a hard job to keep stocks filled up.

In our Men's Department we are offering a big lot of Mens and Boys suits of the most reliable makes at greatly reduced prices. We again urge you to get your suit or overcoat for Man or Boy right now. We know you will save. In all our experiences we have never had a market like this. All calculations of the old timers are upset. No man knows this future. If goods are to be had at right prices, we will have them---but again we urge you to come to the last days of our sale and get your share of calicoe, muslin, ginghams and cheviots while old prices last. There are hundreds of Reduced Prices and Monday is the last day. If you would share in the savings, come both days.

CHARLEROI HIGH WINS EASILY FROM MONESSEN

By Ernest Dorbritz

In a fast but one-sided game Charleroi high school easily added Monessen high school to its long list of victims Friday night in a basketball game on the Monessen floor. The score was 38 to 12.

Charleroi lads entered the game with a keen spirit, and showed up their rivals in all ways. Still they experienced some hard luck in shooting. Their guarding was immense, Monessen being held to two field goals in the entire contest.

Monessen in the first half took six points, four of which were on fouls. In all particulars Charleroi high lads proved superior. They took the lead almost from the start and held it all the way through. In the last part of the game, Coach Gdaniec sent in his splendid string of substitutes who matched well the lads over the river.

Ryland was the leading goal shooter having five to his credit. Lowstuter was close behind, with four. Fiedler caged two field goals and got 6 of 9 fouls. The guarding of both Stahlman and Miksch featured the struggle.

The local high school five was accompanied by a large party of rooters, headed by Cheer Leader Hickey and Assistant Cheer Leader Hepler, the party including at least 150 students.

They made the Monessen gymnasium ring with their cheers. One conspicuous feature was the work of Referee Free Davis of Pittsburg who was cheered along with the players.

Tonight the high school team plays the fast California Normal team on the Charleroi floor. A good game is promised. Lineup:

Charleroi High—38		Monessen—12
Fiedler	F	Preston
Lowstuter	F	Thurkay
Ryland	C	Miller
Stahlman	G	Williams
Miksch	G	McQuaide

Substitutions—Riva for Fiedler, Eagye for Lowstuter, Hill for Ryland, Piersol for Stahlman, Dickson for Miksch, Jones for Thurkay, McKinley for Jones, Hess for Williams, Reed for McQuaide.

Field goals—Fiedler 2, Lowstuter 4, Ryland 5, Stahlman 3, Miksch 2, Preston, Thurkay. Fouls—Fiedler 6 of 9, Preston 8 of 15. Referee—Free Davis.

The program was as follows: Music, orchestra; story, Myrtle Wilson; reading, Gladys Ryland; "Lives of Great Men," Wilbur Metcalf, Clifford Crawford, Irene Jones; reading Grace Chester; vocal solo, Beatrice Bush; debate, "Rosolved that an embargo should be placed on the shipment of munitions of war to belligerent countries." affirmative, Ernest Dorbritz; negative, Walter Dickson. Judges were Prof. T. L. Pollock, Prof. I. T. Daniel and Miss Zella Franks. Winners of the letter "C" received their award at the close. The next meeting will be held February 11 by the Athenaum society.

Included in the lineup will be Young Goldie and Red Robinson ,forwards; MacFarland, center and Johnny Ray and Curly Wolk guards, with Jake Pitler as a substitute.
